

Please do NOT allow broadband over power lines as the tests to date have shown that it generates terrible noise and almost destroys the ability of hams to communicate as part of our hobby and to serve the emergency communications of local and federal governments in times of disaster. As a licensed service we have the right to not have our communications ability destroyed by a commercial interest.